

EU AI ACT AND VOICES FROM THE GLOBAL SOUTH

02.03.2023

Morning

Thursday

09.00h

Constitutional Perspective

Welcome Address & Introduction

Gaurav Sharma, Fellow at AIA NRW, Germany

Keynote Address

Kai Zenner, Digital Policy Advisor, European Parliament, Brussels

09.30h

Democratic Values in AI Governance. Crossed views from the Global South and the EU.

Dr. Karine Caunes, Global Program Director, Center for AI and Digital Policy (CAIDP), Editor-in-Chief chez European Law Journal, France

Dialogue between the UNESCO Recommendations on the Ethics of AI and the EU AI Act: What is the way forward for the Global South?

Dr. Doaa Abu-Elyounes, Program Specialist Ethics of AI, Bioethics & Ethics of Science, SHS Sector, UNESCO, Belgium (remote)

Indian Approach of Human Rights Compliant AI System: is it EU AI Act Compatible?

Aishani Rai, Research Consultant, Public Policy and Governance, India

Chair

Prof. Dr. Marion Ho-Dac, Professor of EU Law, Artois University & Fellow at AIA NRW, Germany

Rapporteur

Hamidou M. Kaboré, University of Artois, Center for Law, Ethics and Procedures, France

11.00h

Coffee Break

11.30h

EU AI Act: Risk Based Approach

Risk Management System in AI: Is there Room for an EU Approach from the perspective of the Global South?

Mr. Udbhav Tiwari, Mozilla, Head of Global Public Policy, Germany

Data Transparency and Information to Users in AI systems: Comparative Approach Brazilian Law – EU AI Act

José Renato Laranjeira de Pereira, iRights.Lab, Germany

Data governance and privacy: Is Regulating AI enough? A South American Perspective in dialogue with EU law

Verónica Arroyo, MPP/MGA candidate at Sciences Po, France

Chair

Cécile Pellegrini, Associate Professor in Digital Law, Catholic University of Lyon, France

Rapporteur

Hamidou M. Kaboré, University of Artois, Center for Law, Ethics and Procedures, France

13.00h

Lunch

Rheinzeit, Rheinallee 25c, 53173 Bonn, Germany

Afternoon

Thursday

14.30h

The Projects Viewpoint

Multiple Projects catering to Ethiopian language dialects: (Non)-Impact and Dialogue with the EU AI Act

Dr. Rosa Tsegaye Aga, Director of the Natural Language Processing (NLP) at the Ethiopian Artificial Intelligence Institute

Public Interest tech and policy, Trustworthy AI: (Non)-Impact and Dialogue with the EU AI Act

Sarah Kiden, Doctoral Researcher, Northumbria University Newcastle, UK

German Development Cooperation (GIZ), Project: FAIR Forward: AI for All: (Non)-Impact and Dialogue with the EU AI Act

Jonas Gramse, Advisor at GIZ - FAIR Forward Project, Germany

Chair

Gaurav Sharma, Fellow, AIA NRW, Germany

Rapporteur

Hamidou M. Kaboré, University of Artois, Center for Law, Ethics and Procedures, France

Closing

16.00h

Conclusion & Vote of Thanks

Gaurav Sharma, Fellow, AIA NRW, Germany

18.30h

Dinner

Bastei, Von-Sandt-Ufer 1, 53173 Bonn